

Assignment 4 Diagram

controllers: the controllers query the mongo database using mongoose; each controller is for a different database or schema router: the router makes use of the controllers by telling the controller what queries need to be called for each route middleware: the middleware is used to direct the API requests to the correct router

